

First off, I see it as impossible to provide built in wiretapping on VoIP communications. For every program that allows backdoors, there will be one that excludes them or uses real time strong encryption to prevent interception. As a taxpayer and voter, I oppose this proceeding.